READY FOR MAT. Both George Herbert and Young Merven, of Waverly, Va., who come together on the mat at Corcoran Hall tomorrow night, claim to be fit for the occasion, and prepared to put up the battle of their wrestling careers.

When Merven was thrown by Herbert in their last bout he claimed for bert in their last bout he claimed to be stale and unprepared to do himself justice, and he is now so confident that be state and injepared to do himself justice, and he is now so confident that he can put the local boy's shoulders to the mat twice in catch-as-catch-can style that he will arrive in Richmond to-morrow morning with a bunch of, money to back himself with.

Merven is admitted by those who have seen him on the mat, to be a clever wrestler, but none of Herbert's admirers doubt the local boy's ahility to come out victorious. At least two preliminaries will proceed the main event.

Herbert has received a challenge from Young Turner, brother of Joe Turner, to meet him either here or in Washington. Young Turner weighs 120 nounds and Herbert is thinking seriously of taking him on in the near future.

The opening game in the Bank Ball League was played yesterday afternoor between the Planters' National and First National Banks, the latter winning by the large score of 15 to 3.

At no stage of the game were the First Nationals in danger, and by good clean ball playing, coupled with the errors of their opponents, managed to take things easy all through the game, and the score would have been much closer the line-up was as follows: First Nationals—Miller, catcher, Pitt, pitcher, Rebman, shortstop: Ryland, first base Crump, second base; Haw, third base Gray left field; Wheat, centre field Royster, right field, Planters' National.—Blackburn, catcher, McFarlane, pitcher, porset, shortstop: Archer, first base; Cagrington, left field; Pare, centre field; Jones, right field; Goaden, substitute, Umpire, Mr. Harwood.
